

Day 13, Thursday, 20 Dec 2001

Going Home

It is with myriad emotions that we roll out of Lewa, thirteen days after we rolled in: Sadness because we will miss this majestic place and these diverse people; Contentment because we have participated in something significant; and Excitement as we embark upon our next experience/adventure, in my case in that wonderful place called home.

